

A Rising Tide

a Cheryl Fabio film

For SUITCASE SCREENINGS, SWFCenter is looking for volunteers to host 5 to 10 friends and/or family in their homes for a free screening of A Rising Tide. Remember, the goal is to raise awareness about OUR ability to end homelessness – the screenings are free! Your screening date should occur between July 25th and November 30th, 2024. In addition to showing the film, our staff will bring coffee cake and facilitate an after-screening intimate discussion of A Rising Tide and the homeless issues it raises.

WHO WE ARE

SARAH WEBSTER FABIO CENTER FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE (SWFCenter) swfcenter4sj@gmail.com is a 501C3 that builds community through the arts. A Rising Tide is a 93-minute documentary film we produced in 2023. It examines homelessness in Alameda County through the eyes of Black children, their families, and the industry that has developed around this housing crisis. With beauty, poetry, and optimism, the film empowers US to act.

TECHNICAL DETAILS: The screening can be performed using the SWFCenter portable projector or by running our computer through your TV system with either cable connectors or AirPlay. TO SIGN UP send your request to: swfcenter4sj@gmail.com

PROVIDE:

Your Name: _____ (first and last)

Address: _____ (street, city, zip code)

Phone # _____ (indicate if we can text you)

Email _____

3 convenient screening dates and times:

Staff will coordinate with you once we receive your request